

Acadia Realty Trust Announces Contract to Sell 17 Non-Core Shopping Centers

November 27, 2001

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 /PRNewswire/ -- Acadia Realty Trust (NYSE: AKR), a fully integrated shopping center real estate investment trust, announced today that it has entered into a contract to sell the final portion of its non-core portfolio. The portfolio consists of 17 retail properties which in the aggregate contain approximately 2.3 million square feet; 10 are located in Pennsylvania and 7 in various southeastern states from Virginia to Florida. It represents approximately 25% of the Company's total property square footage ("GLA") but less than 5% of Acadia's total net asset value. The portfolio is being sold subject to a fixed-rate, cross-collateralized and securitized loan, and the contract is conditioned upon obtaining the lender's consent permitting the buyer to assume the loan. Acadia will be retaining a senior, preferred interest in the buyer.

This portfolio also includes four Ames stores. Upon the completion of this transaction and other recent non-core property sales, Acadia's remaining exposure to Ames will be reduced to only 4 locations, all of which are at or below market rents.

Kenneth F. Bernstein, Acadia's President and CEO, stated: "I am pleased that we have executed this contract which, with our other pending sales, will bring us to the successful completion of the disposition of our non-core properties. The sale of the portfolio will be at a price consistent with our internal valuations and will leave the Company with a healthier balance sheet as a result of deleveraging the portfolio. The Company now has the capital to invest opportunistically and will acquire new assets through our previously announced joint venture."

Acadia had previously announced on October 3, 2001, the formation of an acquisition fund with four of its current institutional investors. The fund will acquire up to $300 million of shopping centers. Acadia will manage, lease and provide construction services for the joint venture.
