

Acadia Realty Trust Provides Update on $392 Million of Transactions

September 8, 2014

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 8, 2014-- Acadia Realty Trust (NYSE:AKR) today announced that it has completed both the previously-reported sale of six retail properties in Miami Beach, Florida owned by its fund platform and the acquisition of a retail property in Manhattan's Soho submarket on behalf of its core portfolio.

Fund Platform Dispositions: Lincoln Rd, Miami Beach, FL

Last month, Acadia completed the previously-announced sale of its two Lincoln Rd portfolios – one of which was owned by Acadia Strategic Opportunity Fund III LLC ("Fund III") and the other by Acadia Strategic Opportunity Fund IV LLC ("Fund IV") – in a single transaction for $342.0 million.

Fund III Transaction Summary. In February 2011, Fund III acquired a 59,677 square foot, three-property portfolio situated on the Lincoln Rd corridor for $51.9 million, in partnership with Miami Beach-based Terranova Corporation. During its 3.5-year hold period, the partnership incurred incremental costs of $2.7 million. In August, the portfolio was sold for $141.8 million, generating a 46% IRR and 3.0x equity multiple for Fund III. Including the net sale proceeds from this transaction, Fund III has now returned $361.2 million to its investors, which represents 97.1% of previously-invested capital.

Fund IV Transaction Summary. In December 2012, Fund IV acquired a 54,864 square foot, three-property portfolio situated on the Lincoln Rd corridor for $139.0 million, also in partnership with Terranova Corporation. During its 1.7-year hold period, the partnership incurred incremental costs of $2.0 million. In August, the portfolio was sold for $200.2 million, generating a 48% IRR and a 1.9x equity multiple for Fund IV.

The sale generated a total distribution of net sale proceeds to the funds of $187.7 million, of which Acadia's pro-rata share totaled $41.7 million.

Core Portfolio Acquisition: Prince St, New York, NY

As previously discussed, in August, Acadia added to its Soho collection in Lower Manhattan with the acquisition of a 3,200 square foot retail property located at 131-135 Prince St for $50.0 million. The market rent for Soho's prime locations has already surpassed $1,000 per square foot. In view of that, today, this well-located asset contains significant embedded growth, which the company will have an opportunity to realize over the next several years as the leases for the existing tenants, Folli Follie and Uno de 50, expire. The company acquired this asset in a private negotiation and funded its investment primarily with operating partnership units ("OP units"). This is the second time in eight months that the company has issued OP units to acquire a Manhattan street-retail property.

Year to date, Acadia has now completed the acquisition of $242.4 million of core retail properties, of which $178.5 million, or 74%, is street retail.
