Fund Acquisitions – High Yield

Landstown Commons, Virginia Beach, VA. In August, Fund V closed on the purchase of Landstown Commons, a 400,000 square-foot shopping center located in Virginia Beach, VA for $87.0 million. The property is anchored by strong retailers including Ross, Best Buy, Ulta, Five Below, Old Navy and Dollar Tree. It benefits from several submarket drivers within 5 miles of the asset including Naval Station Oceana and several education and medical facilities. As the dominant center in the region, this higher-yielding asset has a diverse mix of necessity, entertainment, food and soft goods retailers that complement the market.

Two Property Portfolio, Fredrick, MD. In August, Fund V, in partnership with DLC Management Corp., closed on a two-asset portfolio totaling $53.7 million dollars. The transaction represents the second deal Acadia has done with DLC in as many quarters, with Fund V serving as a 90% partner in the joint venture. Both assets are in Fredrick, Maryland, a growing market ideally positioned to act as a suburb to both Washington, DC and Baltimore.

Frederick Crossing, a 300,000 square-foot center anchored by Kohl's, Best Buy, Ross, and Dollar Tree, was purchased for $32.4 million. The asset is the dominant center in the market with above-average sales and strong stability exhibited through several recent tenant renewals and extensions.

Frederick County Square, a 225,000 square-foot Kmart anchored center was purchased for $21.3 million. This center was purchased well below replacement cost at an attractive yield affording the optionality to accretively redevelop the center to take advantage of an increasing crop of tenants interested in expanding into this growing market.
