

Acadia Realty Trust Announces Appointment of Hope B. Woodhouse to Board of Trustees

January 10, 2023

Wendy Luscombe to Retire from Board as Part of Ongoing Board Refreshment

RYE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 10, 2023-- Acadia Realty Trust (NYSE: AKR) ("Acadia" or the "Company") today announced the appointment of Hope B. Woodhouse to the Company's Board of Trustees (the "Board") and to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, effective January 10, 2023.

Ms. Woodhouse is a seasoned financial executive with substantial experience in the financial services sector having spent over 25 years in executive management roles at top-ranked, global alternative asset management firms and broker dealers. From 2005 to 2009, she served as Chief Operating Officer and as a member of the management committee of Bridgewater Associates, Inc. Between 2003 and 2005, Ms. Woodhouse was President and Chief Operating Officer of Auspex Group, L.P., and was Chief Operating Officer and a member of the management committee of Soros Fund Management LLC from 2000 to 2003. Prior to that, she held various executive leadership positions, including at Tiger Management L.L.C., and Salomon Brothers Inc.

Ms. Woodhouse also presently serves as an independent director on the Boards of Two Harbors Investment Corp. (NYSE: TWO), where she has served since 2012 and is chair of the Risk Oversight Committee and a member of the Audit Committee, and Granite Point Mortgage Trust Inc. (NYSE: GPMT), where she has served since 2017 and is chair of the Compensation Committee and a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance and Audit Committees. Ms. Woodhouse previously served as a director of Piper Jaffray Companies (NYSE: PJC), Seoul Securities Co. Ltd., Soros Funds Limited, The Bond Market Association and as a member of the investment committee at Phillips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts. Ms. Woodhouse received an A.B. degree in Economics from Georgetown University and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School.

The Company also announced today that Wendy Luscombe, an independent trustee and member of the Audit Committee and chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board, will retire from the Board effective as of January 10, 2023. Ms. Luscombe has served on the Board since 2004 and her retirement is part of the Board's ongoing commitment to refreshment, including the appointment to the Board of Ms. Woodhouse, described above, and the recent appointment of independent trustees Mark Denien in 2022 and Kenneth A. McIntyre in 2021. Additionally, as previously announced, independent trustee Lorrence T. Kellar will retire at the expiration of his current term.

"Wendy has been a valuable member of our Board for nearly 20 years and has contributed to the company in numerous ways, including with respect to her leadership on risk management, cybersecurity and ESG issues," stated Lee S. Wielansky, Lead Trustee of Acadia's Board. "We sincerely thank her for her exceptional dedication and service in helping to grow Acadia into the outstanding company that it is today. At the same time, we are very excited to welcome Hope to the Board. Hope's decades of operational, financial, and risk-management expertise from her time with several premier global alternative asset management firms is impressive and will bring new perspective and insight to our Company as we continue to execute on our long-term growth strategy."

Safe Harbor Statement

Certain statements in this press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements, which are based on certain assumptions and describe the Company's future plans, strategies and expectations are generally identifiable by the use of words, such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "believe," "intend" or "project," or the negative thereof, or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause the Company's actual results and financial performance to be materially different from future results and financial performance expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements (including accretion and guidance statements), including, but not limited to: (i) the economic, political and social impact of, and uncertainty surrounding the COVID-19 Pandemic, including its impact on the Company's tenants and their ability to make rent and other payments or honor their commitments under existing leases; (ii) macroeconomic conditions, such as a disruption of or lack of access to the capital markets; (iii) the Company's success in implementing its business strategy and its ability to identify, underwrite, finance, consummate and integrate diversifying acquisitions and investments; (iv) changes in general economic conditions or economic conditions in the markets in which the Company may, from time to time, compete, and their effect on the Company's revenues, earnings and funding sources; (v) increases in the Company's borrowing costs as a result of rising inflation, changes in interest rates and other factors, including the discontinuation of the USD London Interbank Offered Rate, which is currently anticipated to occur in 2023; (vi) the Company's ability to pay down, refinance, restructure or extend its indebtedness as it becomes due; (vii) the Company's investments in joint ventures and unconsolidated entities, including its lack of sole decision-making authority and its reliance on its joint venture partners' financial condition; (viii) the Company's ability to obtain the financial results expected from its development and redevelopment projects; (ix) the tenants' ability and willingness to renew their leases with the Company upon expiration, the Company's ability to re-lease its properties on the same or better terms in the event of nonrenewal or in the event the Company exercises its right to replace an existing tenant, and obligations the Company may incur in connection with the replacement of an existing tenant; (x) the Company's potential liability for environmental matters; (xi) damage to the Company's properties from catastrophic weather and other natural events, and the physical effects of climate change; (xii) uninsured losses; (xiii) the Company's ability and willingness to maintain its qualification as a REIT in light of economic, market, legal, tax and other considerations; (xiv) information technology security breaches, including increased cybersecurity risks relating to the use of remote technology during the COVID-19 Pandemic; (xv) the loss of key executives; and (xvi) the accuracy of the Company's methodologies and estimates regarding environmental, social and governance ("ESG") metrics, goals and targets, tenant willingness and ability to collaborate towards reporting ESG metrics and meeting ESG goals and targets, and the impact of governmental regulation on its ESG efforts.

The factors described above are not exhaustive and additional factors could adversely affect the Company's future results and financial performance, including the risk factors discussed under the section captioned "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021 and other periodic or current reports the Company files with the SEC. Any forward-looking statements in this press release speak only as of the date hereof. The Company expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in the Company's expectations with regard thereto or change in the events, conditions or circumstances on which such forward-looking statements are based.
