ACADIA REALTY TRUST ANNOUNCES KEY PROMOTIONS AND CHANGES TO MANAGEMENT TEAMS

RYE, NY (February 12, 2024) – Acadia Realty Trust (NYSE:AKR) (“Acadia” or the “Company”) today announced the year-end promotions for the following professionals to support its continued growth:

Reggie Livingston has been promoted to Executive Vice President, Chief Investment Officer. Mr. Livingston will continue to drive the Company’s external growth by developing investment strategies and leading the sourcing, underwriting and execution of new investments. Since joining Acadia in 2011, Mr. Livingston was promoted to Senior Vice President, Co-head of Acquisitions in 2020 and to Senior Vice President, Chief Investment Officer in 2023.

Samantha Stapleton has been promoted to Vice President, Asset Management. In her role, Ms. Stapleton will be responsible for developing and executing Acadia’s long-term asset management strategy, with a focus on identifying and implementing value creation solutions that optimize portfolio performance. Since joining the Company as an intern in 2013, Ms. Stapleton has achieved great success in increasingly challenging roles within the Company’s development team and transitioned to the asset management team with her promotion to Senior Director, Asset Management in 2023, and assumed oversight of asset management of the Company’s core and fund portfolio.

Christina Lamendola has been promoted to Vice President, Strategic Lease Management. Ms. Lamendola will continue to oversee her team while taking on the responsibilities of implementing the Company’s tenant payment portal, negotiating deals with in-place tenants, as well as enhancing the Company’s billing and collection strategies. Ms. Lamendola has progressively advanced within the lease administration team since joining the Company in 2015 and most recently served as Senior Director, Lease Administration.

Safe Harbor Statement

Certain statements in this press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements, which are based on certain assumptions and describe the Company's future plans, strategies and expectations are generally identifiable by the use of words, such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "believe," "intend" or "project," or the negative thereof, or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause the Company's actual results and financial performance to be materially different from future results and financial performance expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to: (i) macroeconomic conditions, including due to geopolitical conditions and instability, which may lead to a disruption of or lack of access to the capital markets, disruptions and instability in the banking and financial services industries and rising inflation; (ii) the Company's success in implementing its business strategy and its ability to identify, underwrite, finance, consummate and integrate diversifying acquisitions and investments; (iii) changes in general economic conditions or economic conditions in the markets in which the Company may, from time to time, compete, and their effect on the Company's revenues, earnings and funding sources; (iv) increases in the Company's borrowing costs as a result of rising inflation, changes in interest rates and other factors, including the discontinuation of the USD London Interbank Offered Rate, which was effected on June 30, 2023; (v) the Company's ability to pay down, refinance, restructure or extend its indebtedness as it becomes due; (vi) the Company's investments in joint ventures and unconsolidated entities, including its lack of sole decision-making authority and its reliance on its joint venture partners' financial condition; (vii) the Company's ability to obtain the financial results expected from its development and redevelopment projects; (viii) the ability and willingness of the Company's tenants to renew their leases with the Company upon expiration, the Company's ability to re-lease its properties on the same or better terms in the event of nonrenewal or in the event the Company exercises its right to replace an existing tenant, and obligations the Company may incur in connection with the replacement of an existing tenant; (ix) the Company's potential liability for environmental matters; (x) damage to the Company's properties from catastrophic weather and other natural events, and the physical effects of climate change; (xi) the economic, political and social impact of, and uncertainty surrounding, any public health crisis, such as the COVID-19 Pandemic, which adversely affected the Company and its tenants' business, financial condition, results of operations and liquidity; (xii) uninsured losses; (xiii) the Company's ability and willingness to maintain its qualification as a REIT in light of economic, market, legal, tax and other considerations; (xiv) information technology security breaches, including increased cybersecurity risks relating to the use of remote technology; (xv) the loss of key executives; and (xvi) the accuracy of the Company's methodologies and estimates regarding environmental, social and governance ("ESG") metrics, goals and targets, tenant willingness and ability to collaborate towards reporting ESG metrics and meeting ESG goals and targets, and the impact of governmental regulation on its ESG efforts.

The factors described above are not exhaustive and additional factors could adversely affect the Company's future results and financial performance, including the risk factors discussed under the section captioned "Risk Factors" in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other periodic or current reports the Company files with the SEC. Any forward-looking statements in this press release speak only as of the date hereof. The Company expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in the Company's expectations with regard thereto or changes in the events, conditions or circumstances on which such forward-looking statements are based.
